Barbara Jones

Dear B.J.

It has been another one of those years when you know you have to come back again, But thats alright I guess.
I like the people around me, I don't know what I am going to do when I graduate next year.
I probably won't see you [redacted] guys this summer because I will be going to Spokane to work with my Dads ex-boss. Well [redacted] have a very nice summer. I will see you next year

Love
Stephen

Mrs Jones,
I've really enjoyed working with you in the office this past semester. You are a really pleasant person to be around. Have a nice summer and I'll see ya next year.
Luv always
Tammy
Lloyd

Dear Mrs. Jones!
Boy am I going to miss you and the school. I really hope we keep in touch and may your life
be good
Love
Thomas Reske

Mrs Jones,
I really enjoyed working in the office
this year and I'm going to miss it next year. You really made me feel important
and like I am somebody.
I'll never forget that.

Thanks alot

Bonnie Morris

B.J., I've meet some nice lady's before but your the cherry of the tree. Whether your happy or sad, the smile that appears on your face is a good enough for anyone. Your special to me and in years to come, I hope we'll always know each other closer.
All my Love,

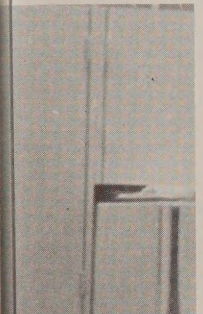
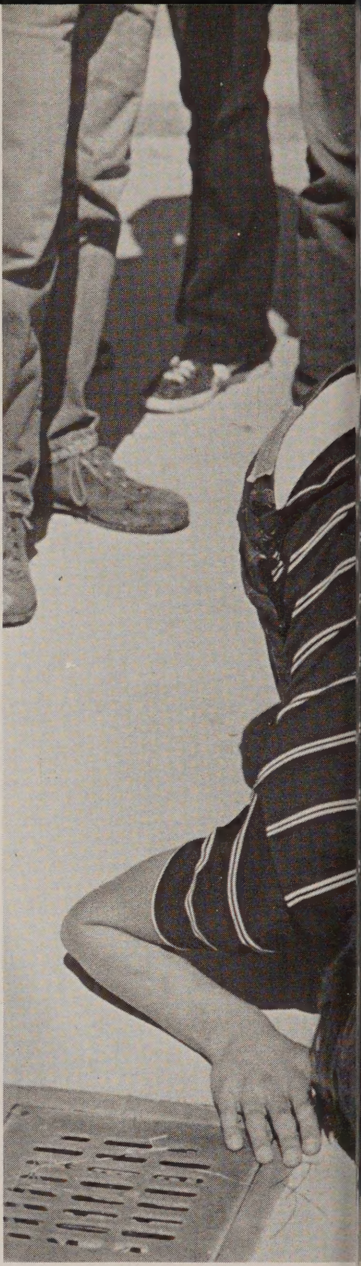
Sophomores given warm welcome by upper classmen

In the two upper photos by Bob Taylor, Brad Johnson welcomes Wayne Cook, Karen Lee and Packy Cowan. At right is Earl Ruttencutter, Mr. Tucker, Julie Hall, Larry McDade, Gary Emery, Christy Langenberg, Brad Johnson, Robin Downey, Ken Brower, Peggy Kary, Joe VanChura, Shawn White, Dave Smith, Mike Roseberry and (sitting) Tim Wise. This group, known as the "Greasers" entertained at the initiation assembly. Lower left, photographer Kevin Mathews caught teacher Ken Fenter haranguing Larry Mitchel, Jeff Moore and Gary Goddard as they attempted to initiate the sophomores during Hello Week. Lower right, Kevin catches Tammy Kraal being initiated. Lower center Dwight Barnes wears required hair do for the week. Photo by Wendell King.

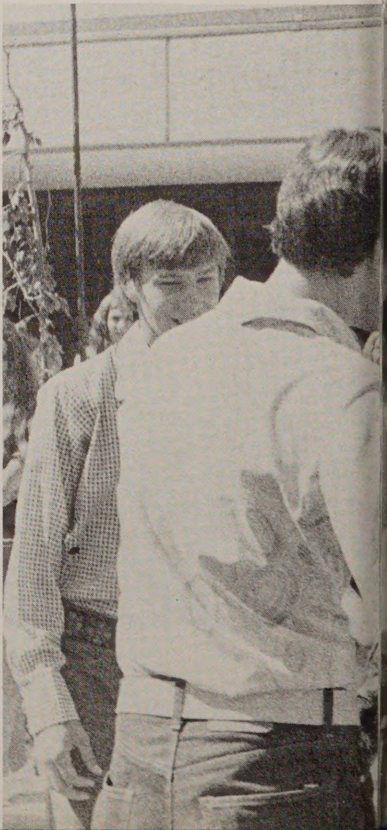


B. J.,
This is where I have signed every annual. I really enjoy coming down to the office anytime and talking to ya! Stay your bubbly self!
P.S. Be good always,
Dinah

Some activities were illegal until the rules changed



Randy Olsen and Tim Wise help a couple of sophomores get acquainted, upper left. Lower left, the sophomores were allowed to dance for the seniors. Upper center, some of the sophomores were required to do some things which were prohibited by the rules of the week. An example of the illegal activity was the penny pushing, hugging, and baby bottles. When objections were raised, the rules were changed. Photos by Bob Taylor and Kevin Mathews.



Although activities were illegal, sophomores cooperated

1973 a year of energy crisis

This was the year we learned a new word, "Energy Crisis". Here in Oregon we found out about it before anyone else did. The governor told everyone to turn out the lights and not to light Christmas trees. Suddenly around Christmas we saw a variation of the age-old dragging the gut. Only this time we spent many hours and gallons of gas waiting in lines at gas stations. It was kind of strange. We were having a tough time of it and there was no war going on. Everyone began talking about riding their bikes, although the racks didn't seem to get any fuller. We had speeches from the power companies. We even had a week of things about the "energy crunch". Not too much attention was paid, though. We slept through an assembly which said there would be nothing left by the year 2000. About a half dozen newswriting students entered the poster contest. No one else in the student body bothered. People walked around saying, "It's an oil company plot," or "Nixon should do something." A few people were saying, "Find alternate sources of energy," and "Yes, we do have a problem." By the time this is read, we will have found out for sure what the situation really was.

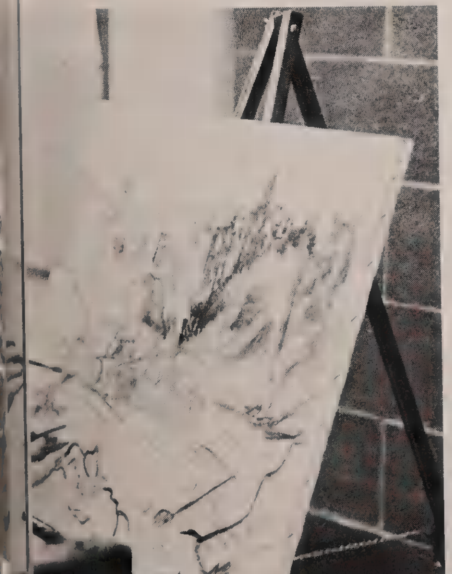
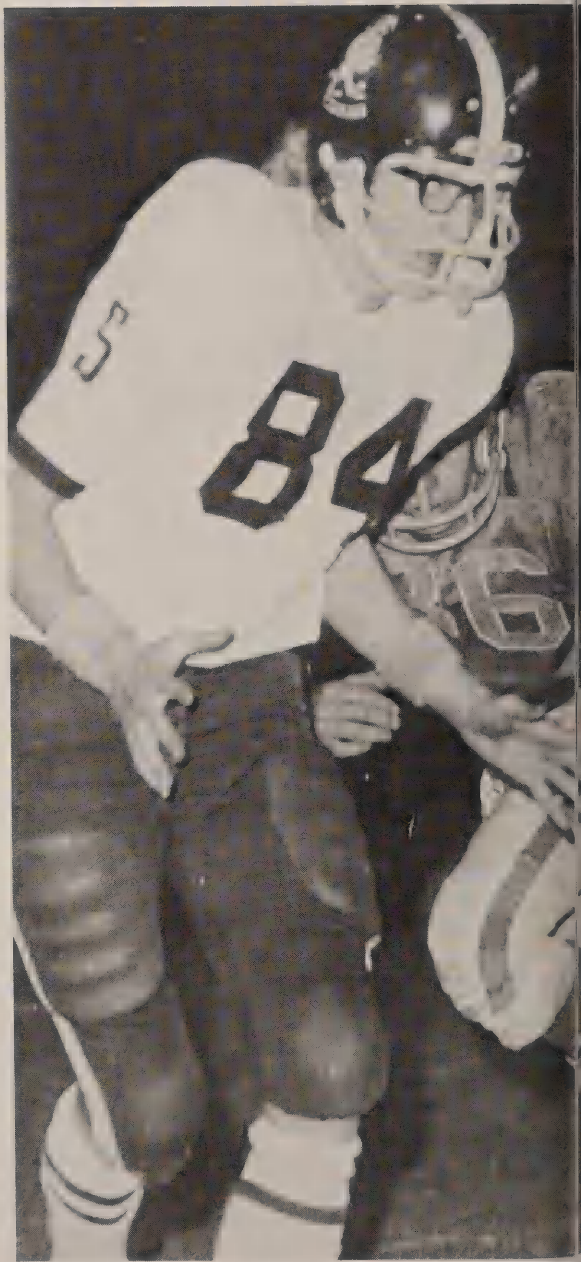
Craftsmen demonstrate skills

Through the cooperation of art teacher, Pat Morin, and art coordinator, Marge Hellund, craftsmen and artists were brought to SHS for a day. Students were able to view their works and the artists at work. All were able and anxious to answer questions about their crafts and the skills necessary to do them. Among the artists attending were Mike Youngblood, sculptor, at far left; Dan White, metal smith, upper left; Chip Masarie, potter, center left; Sandy Daniels, water color artist, lower left; Karen Snider, oil painter, lower center left; Alfonso Cabrera, woodcarver, far right. Students seemed to be most fascinated by Masarie and the potter's wheel. (photos by Dave Allen.)





The 1973 Springfield football team had a disappointing season in the record books, scoring one victory against eight defeats. Several factors combined to hamper the Miller's efforts toward a winning season. There were injuries to several key players, and a number of players from last year's team decided not to play this year. Sophomores and juniors were plentiful in the lineups this year, and there will be a strong nucleus of players for next year's team. Mike Roseberry was named this year's outstanding footballer and Steve Shelgren and Greg Tharp shared the honor of most improved player. Row one: Mike Roseberry and Grant Plautz. Row two: Ron Bour, Greg Wells, Norm Hill, Al Staniford, Kevin Banks, Darvel Medford, Randy Gerg, Randy Olson, Rick Lloyd, Tim Tagwerker, Steve Shelgren, Brian Carey, and Dan Sauer. Row three: Dave Tagwerker, John Goldsberry, Greg Tharp, Tony Pulliam, Doug Lewellen, Keith Jackson, Steve Cogburn, Chuck Whittington, Tom Line, Rick Davidson, Elroy Harrison, Craig Fitzgerald, Roger Foster, and Mark Morrisette. Left: Elroy Harrison and Darvel Medford blocking for extra yardage. Center left: Keith Jackson, third leading receiver in the district. Right center: Elroy Harrison. Right: Elroy again going up field with Randy Olson right behind.

Boys gymnastics

The boys gymnastics team had an up and down season this year. They compiled an impressive record of seven wins and two losses in duel meets but were eighth place in the district meet. Team chances were shattered early in the season with the loss of five seasoned performers. Newcomers filled the slots and the only losses of the season were at the hands of Churchill and South Eugene, state first and second place winners respectively. Charlie Van Rossen won the most outstanding gymnast trophy.

The following is from a story run in the Springfield News run just before the girls participated in the state tourney in Portland. The story was a pace setter in coverage of girls sports at SHS.

Jeanette Sullivan has finally learned what athletic competition is all about.

The hard way.

And, somehow, the lesson seemed ironic.

After a whirlwind season that saw Springfield's girls basketball team chalk up an incredible 13-0 record, the Millerettes suddenly faded in the clench Wednesday night and dropped a 37-30 contest to none other than visiting cross-town rival Thurston.

"Now I know what it means to be really competitive," grinned Jeanette afterwards. "I was really uptight about that game. I didn't get any sleep Wednesday night and I think I cried."

But, despite the reaction to its first loss, Springfield's tears haven't blurred the Millerettes' ultimate goal -- winning the championship at the first_annual girls' state basketball tournament in Portland next weekend.

Springfield's desire to win the tourney evolved almost from the moment Jeanette learned there was even going to be a state tournament this year.

She had little trouble instilling her girls with the same idea.

"It all started last spring when I decided my girls should go to a basketball camp," said Jeanette. "I called Dick Harter and discovered he wasn't going to conduct a camp so we started looking around and I found out that Portland State was having a camp."

The Millerettes conducted a number of fund raising projects and two girls attended the camp.

"While they were up there they heard about the state tournament -- we didn't know when or where, just that there would be a girls state," Jeanette recounted.

Upon the completion of girls' cross country, the Springfield game plan for the state tournament began to take shape.

When the District 5AAA girls season began Springfield entered the fray with a passion.

"If anything put us in the tourney it was my girls' super determination," Jeanette grins. "They weren't going to let anybody beat them."

Surprisingly, the Millerettes didn't let anybody beat them until the very end.

"Oh, there were some close ones," Jeanette recalls, referring to a trio of come-from-behind squeakers.

Producing a good head of steam from a 28-32 victory over Emerald League champion Marist in their first contest, the Millerettes had little trouble rolling over Mohawk, North Eugene and Jeanette's alma mater, South Eugene. In fact, the two victories over Mohawk were spectacular.

During the first meeting Springfield demolished the Indians 57-8 and in the second contest tromped the squaws 32-9.

Suddenly, however, the going got rough.

Only Springfield's sturdy offense saved the day as the Millerettes came from behind to edge Thurston 35-34, Cottage Grove 28-35 and Willamette 34-31.

At this point Springfield had collected a 9-0 record – and popped up as the only undefeated team in the midwestern girls basketball league.

Subsequent non-league victories over Crescent Valley of Corvallis and Dallas boosted the tally to 11-0 -- enough to raise a few eyebrows at Portland State.

Culling the list of potentials for the 16-team invitational state tournament, PSU athletic officials had no trouble deciding that Springfield should be invited to Portland.

By the time Springfield's invitation had found its way through an inept postal service, the Millerettes had extended their record to 14-0.

Needless to say, there was considerable joy in the Springfield ranks.

"We decided right then and there we were going to win the championship, Jeanette said. "And I think my girls can do it."

Fortunately, Springfield will be entering the tourney on a firm foundation. Of the 13 girls slated to make the trip, six are returning lettermen and two are sophomores with virtually unlimited potential.

Probably the four most outstanding players on the squad are senior guards Linda Warthen and Cindy Dubbs, and junior forwards Rae Reed and Janel Huser -- who distinguished herself last year on the Springfield girls' track team.

Jeanette also sees a bright future for Angie Hill – an attractive 6-foot sophomore who looks like she'd be more at home on the rally squad than the floor of combat.

"Angie has done an outstanding job this season, but lacks experience," Jeanette said. "I think by next year her talents will really show."

Backing these five starters are junior guard Peggy Haines, junior forward Val Ruttencutter and sophomore forward Cindy Corkum.

On the shoulders of these eight girls will rest the bulk of Springfield's hopes for a state championship.

Jeanette doesn't foresee that much of a problem. Although Springfield foundered on some of the basics against Thurston, its general posture is sound. Strategy, too, seems to be solid.

"Our defense varies," Jeanette explains. "We sort of divide it up between a 2-2-1 zone and man-to-man -- or I guess you could say woman-to-woman."

Even though the zone has proven effective – particularly during the Millerettes' early contests, Jeanette seems to prefer the man-to-man.

"Man-to-man is the only way to really learn defense," the coach maintains. "We didn't use it against Thurston Wednesday night and you know what happened. I just don't know where my head was when we played Thurston."

Jeanette avoids making any commitments on what kind of defense Springfield will utilize at state other than describing the man-to-man as being "highly successful" in post season games against many teams who've been invited to Portland.

Offensively, Springfield will just have to wait and see. The Millerettes have a versatile repertoire when it comes to offense, and undoubtedly will exhaust it at the tournament.

As the regular season developed, Springfield began relying on two particular offensive strategies -- and both will probably see considerable use next weekend.

"Against the man-to-man we screen and roll," Jeanette said. "The girls are really very good at this and it's proven effective. I don't know what happened to it Wednesday, though."

The other offense that's been good to the Millerettes has been a 1-3-1.

"When we come up against a zone we use the 1-3-1 with a high post and low post and two wings," Jeanette explains. "We didn't do that very well against Thurston's zone Wednesday night either. Of course other than Dallas -- which I think is a very good team -- we haven't been playing teams as good as Thurston."

Jeanette can only hope that's the case in Portland.

If Dallas is one of the better teams in the state, the Dragons won't get to prove it this year.

"I don't know why," said Jeanette," but Dallas didn't even apply to participate in the state tourney."

That oversight, unquestionably, will be to Springfield's advantage.

A few more omissions like that and it's almost a certainty Jeanette Sullivan won't be crying herself to sleep next Friday in Portland.

As you know, the girls basketball team participated in the state basketball finals which were held in Portland. The results were good, but not quite good enough to get us to the finals but we did make the semi-finals. We beat Coquille 25-19 and Grant 28-21 but Centennial beat us 24-20.

The thundering capacity crowd was delighted by a hot shooting Sophomore, J.V. and Varsity in the Annual Civil War Battle with the Colts. An 11 point margin by the sophomores set the pace for the victorious evening. Things began warming up in the J.V. game, we saw tempers flare, a high number of fouls, and three technical fouls. In the Varsity contest the Millers were fighting the team with State Tournament aspirations. Tom Hooker's coolness and accuracy led the Millers in a steady even, low fouling game which kept the fans in suspense down to the last 15 seconds, where they led by 3 points. So many games had been lost in the critical 15 seconds the crowd was standing with the smell of upset in the air. The Colts were unable to score and Carlson was fouled with 1 second remaining, guaranteeing the win. The clean sweep was especially sweet to a hometown crowd who had become supportive and enthusiastic even in the face of a losing season. Much of the spirit of the season resulted from the leadership, showmanship, and enthusiasm of such groups as the pep band, Hi-Lites and Rally's.

The Springfield High School Chess team had a very good season, winning district and going to state. The players for the team, 1st board, Dale Bradley, 13 wins, 3 draws, 2 losses; 2nd board, Don Kelley, 7 wins, 3 draws, 7 losses; 3rd board, Phil Cruz, 10 wins, 3 draws, 4 losses; 4th board, Alan Maddux, 10 wins, 3 draws, 5 losses; 5th board in the regular season was Tom Cauble, 9 wins, 1 draw, 2 losses; and 5th board in the district playoffs and state was Rodney Lewis with 3 wins, 1 draw, 3 losses. The coaches were Mr. Vogt, Mr. Canaday, and Mr. Wheeler.

On the first game of the season, spirits were shattered by a loss to Elmira 1-4. After being slaughtered by Elmira, the Millers came back and wiped out Creswell with a score of 3½-1½. Next came Cottage Grove, last year's winners, and an SHS win of 3½-1½. Then SHS just got by Churchill with a score of 3-2. Next Oakridge stopped a skunk by getting a draw on the 2nd board, making the score 4½-½. On the next four games against North Eugene, Willamette, Pleasant Hill, and Sheldon, SHS skunked them with a score of 5-0. Then South Eugene just inched by us with a score of 3-2. The next victim was Thurston who forfeited the game to us, thus giving us a record of 9 wins, 2 losses.

At the district playoffs against South Eugene, Cottage Grove and Churchill, SHS got revenge on South Eugene, beating them with a score of 3-2, then we just beat Cottage Grove by getting four draws and one win, giving SHS a score of 3-2. Then the team lost to Churchill by a score of 2-3 but the team still won district with a record of 2-1. 2nd went to Churchill with a record of 2-1 (we had a better seasonal record) and 3rd went to Cottage Grove.

The team went to state in Corvallis on Feb. 8 & 9 and finished 12th out of 16 schools by losing to Lincoln 2-3 and Sprage 1½-3½, then getting a draw with David Douglas and St. Helens.

WELCOME TO THE GOVERNOR'S OFFICE

Donna Buckley and Mr. O'Neal visiting Oregon Governor Tom McCall during national and state student council week. The proclamation was part of a national program to renew interest in student government. Also, later in the year, Donna visited Washington D.C. as an Oregon student delegate.

Mrs Jones –
My, what can I about a person who is terrific! You have really been great this year (as always!)
and I don't think that I could have made it through without you! Thank you for the many extras - 'specially collage [illegible] calls!)
I'll miss you,
God Bless!
Love,
Donna

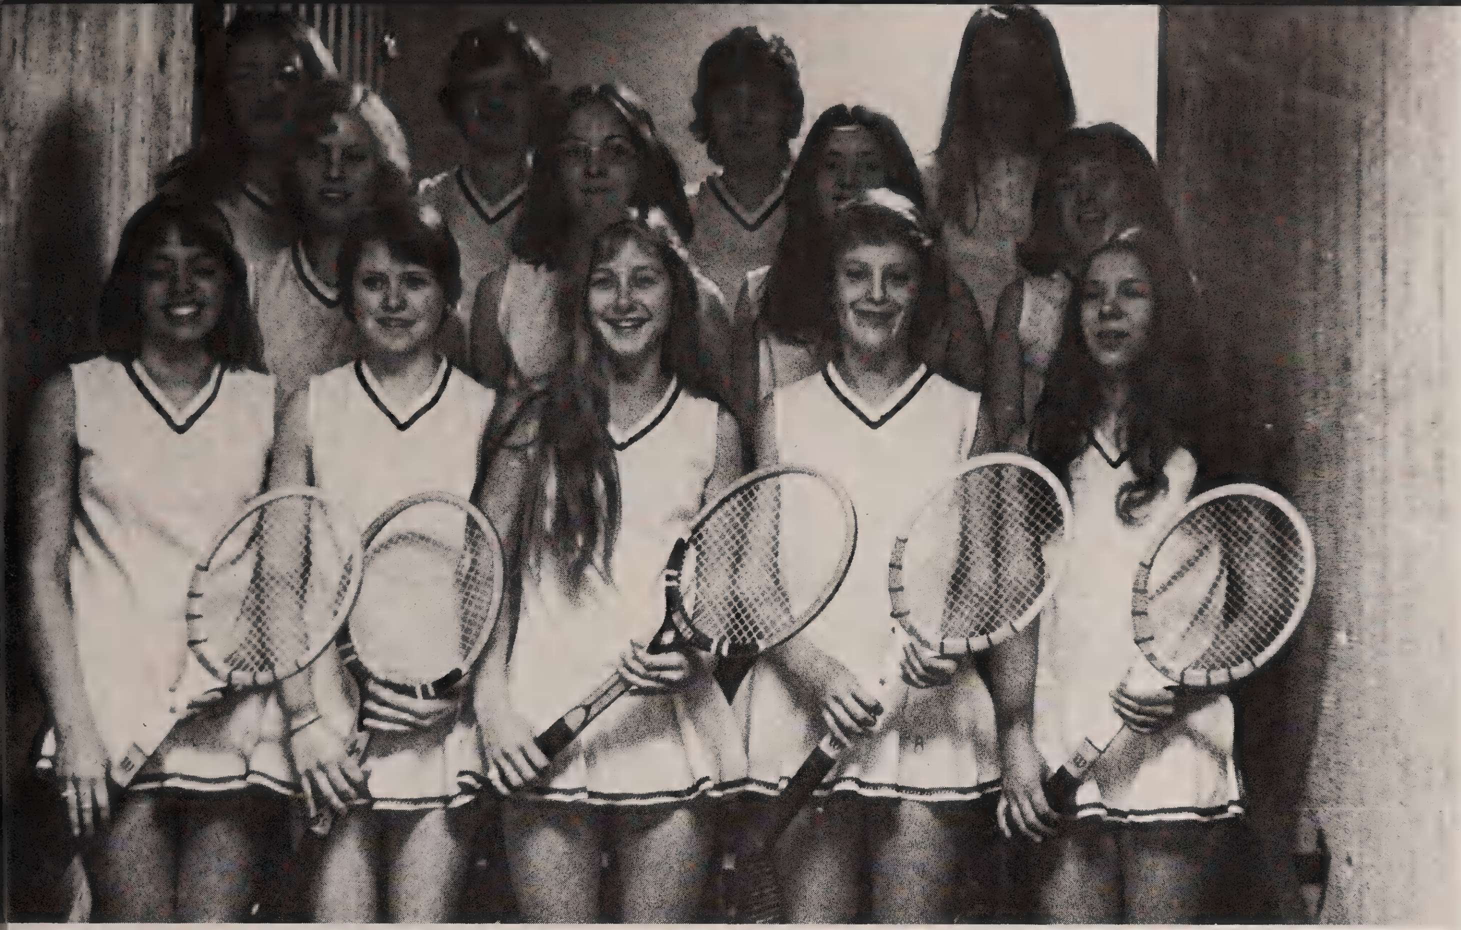
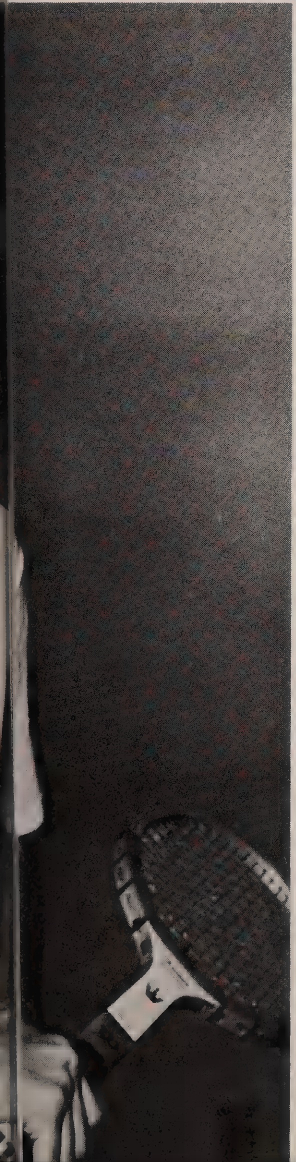
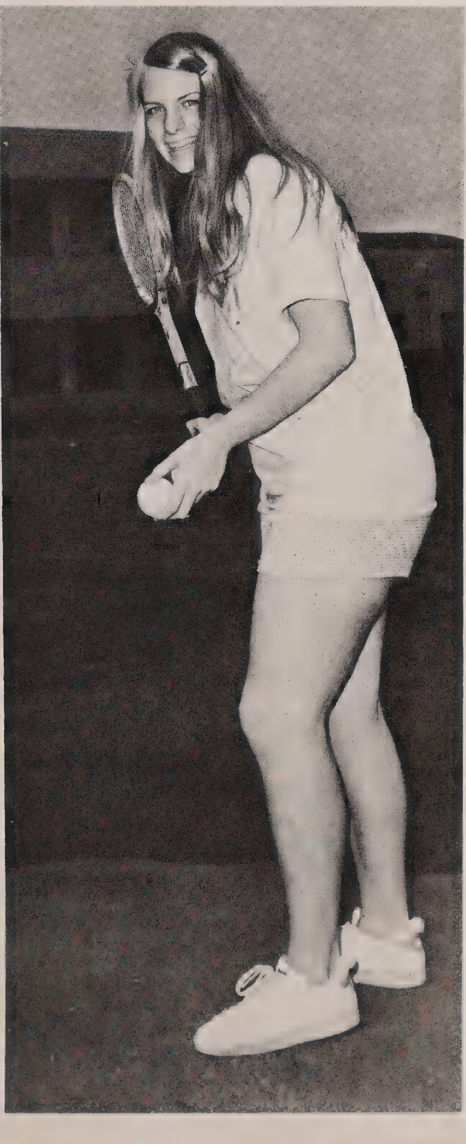
TENNIS







Both boys and girls tennis teams are rebuilding this year. Sophomores and juniors make up most of the teams, so they should get plenty of experience for the future years.

Going into the season, Springfield has several trackmen who could finish high in the state meet. Several state qualifiers from last year were back, including Doug Lewellen in the 440, Bob Moore in the high jump and high hurdles, Brad Johnson in the intermediate hurdles, and the mile relay team. No statistics were available at press time, but they will be published in the 1975 yearbook.

The girls track team also had several strong performers back from last year's team. Sprinter Amy Cook, distance runner Kathy Jordan and hurdler and long jumper Marylou Armstrong have participated in state meets and are expected to lead the team to a strong showing this year. Because the Miller's Log must go to the printers in early March it was impossible to have formal team shots of the spring sports program. The girls track team and other spring sports and their records will be run in the 1975 yearbook. Girls out for track when the book went to press were, row one, Nancy Davidson, Milissa Morrisette, Bettina Reske, Patty Manning, Candy Jackson, Sheena Sisk, Cindy Phillips, and Gala Dorsey. Below, Mary Lou Armstrong, Cathy Smith and Amy Cook practice.

Golf

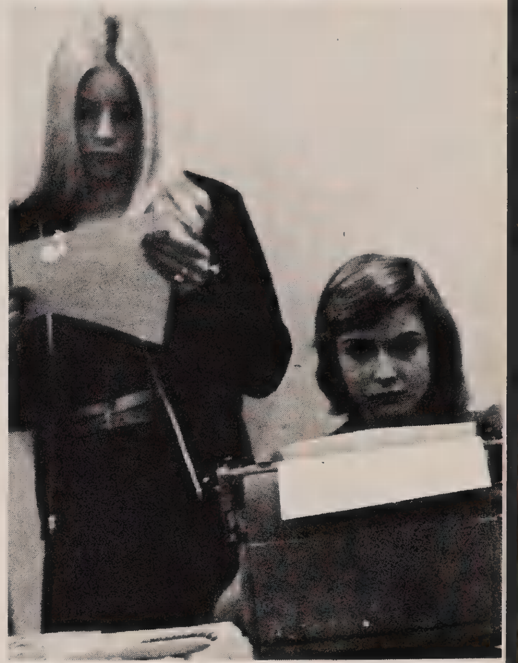
The golf team was faced with a lot of new faces this year. Graduation took a heavy toil from last year's team, and newcomers will have to fill the ranks. This will be the last year for the golf team under the direction of coach George Calderwood, who is retiring, at the end of the school year. The golfers' are left to right, Byran Carey, Jeff Moore, Jim Rodriguez, Mark Beals, Mark Wood, Chris Mihulka, Rick Wilcox, and Steve Creps.

SHS was entertained and informed by radio station KSHS, Chanel 1. From an hour before school started to the end of 7th period Terry Lee, Michelle Elldredge, Gary Emery, Wendell King, Megan Cox, Sue Thompson, Mike Myers, Steve Yates, Denise, Mark McCullough (noon), Dave Allen, Dan Doggett, Mark Dixon, Chris Beckett, Dee LaRoe, and Jan Fegles. Not pictured were Kevin Voories, and Mark Morrisette.

Here in the candids are Jordi Carlson and Chris Beckett. Chris is in the production room auditioning records while Jordi does her show.

CLASSETTE RECORDER

The yearbook and newspaper staff was responsible for producing the Sentinel and the Miller's Log. Most of the reporters for the Sentinel were actually in an English class called Newswriting. Editors for the paper were Teena Killian and Elaine Obernolte. Staff Artist was Michelle Lytle, Sports Editor, Mike Walch. Advisors were Mr. Bennett and Mrs. Streeter and Mr. Fenter. Editor of the yearbook was Jo Hiibschman, assistant Steve Yates and Judy Roberson. Advisor of the yearbook was Ken Fenter. Photos this page, Upper right, Charlie VanRossen, photo; at right, Laurie Mitchel and Michelle Lytle. Center, Mike Walch. Center right, Doug McChesney. Lower, the journalism class directs it's collective attention to typesetter Bobby Horton. Row one, Kevin Mathews, photo; Chris Beckett, radio news; Carin Cagle, photo; Jo Hiibschman, editor; Dave Allen, photo; Row two, Greg Stratton, yearbook staffer, Judy Roberson, editor's assistant; Mike Walch, sports; Steve Yates, assistant editor; Wendell King, photographer; Teresa Smith, index; and Karen Lee, all around helper. Not shown but vitally important to the yearbook and newspaper being published were Tom Garrett who is too shy to have his picture taken, and Cindy Whitted. Both were typesetters for the publications. Also to be mentioned is Bob Taylor, photographer; Ronalee Ramsay who helped proofread the paper, student teacher Midge Jambor; and the newswriting students.



Nellie Scott, Production Manager and cook at SHS is planning to retire at the end of the school year. For 21 years, Mrs. Scott has worked for the students of Springfield comprising the daily menus, ordering food, and carrying out the regular duties of a cook. Mrs. Scott began working as a cook in 1953, and was later promoted to Manager in 1957. When she started, there were only 5 cooks working at Springfield with 300-400 students to feed, by comparison with the 1000 students they are now cooking for.

Many changes have occurred while Mrs. Scott has been working. Changes in student population, and also changes in the school itself. She has found her last 3 years in the new school "very interesting."

When Mrs. Scott isn't working at the school, she is usually working at home, where she raises pole beans and filberts. She has 18 acres of pole beans, and 5 acres of filberts, of which she has farmed for 25 years. She stopped growing beans 3 years ago.

In her leisure time she likes to fish, bowl and travel. She hopes to do a lot of traveling after she retires. During her first summer of retirement, she would like to travel throughout Canada and go to the East Coast. Other than traveling, she said she would like to "just relax and take it easy."

Mrs. Scott is very fond of the many students she has become acquainted with in her many years of service. She will be greatly missed here at SHS.

In 1957 while I was a senior at Springfield High School, I heard there would be a job opening in the attendance office at the high school. I immediately called my mother and begged her to apply for the job. She did, bless her, and was interviewed and accepted by Dr. Dale Parnell, who was then our principal.

For the next three months, until my graduation in June, we had the most fantastic time together. My mother actually became my friend. We had lunch together, worked together (I took my office practice class from her), shared secrets together and just had fun together.

After I left, my sister Milly and many other Springfield High students and staff were able to enjoy mother's warmth, understanding and dedication to her work until September of 1961. At that time she changed schools and started working at the new Thurston High School as attendance office clerk.

It was back to Springfield High School for mother in September of 1965. She worked in the attendance office again but soon was promoted to records clerk, the job she held until her retirement this year, 1974.

The students and staff have gained from knowing my mother, not only because of her dedication to her work but in a personal way, too. It has always been my pleasure to help her when she had a heavy work load and I will miss her not working for the school district and especially for Springfield High School. It will be an honor to follow in her footsteps and keep up the family tradition by working for the Springfield Public Schools as an elementary school secretary. I hope my years with the school district are as successful as yours were, Mother, and that I will become as well loved by students and fellow coworkers as you are.

God Bless You,
Lillian Eich Dixon

Mrs. Betty Eich

Mr. George Calderwood

Mr. George Calderwood, a U.S. History teacher for 13 years here at Springfield High is going to retire after this year. Mr. Calderwood has mixed feelings on retirement. "I have mixed emotions. I feel as though I have a lot of years left but I also feel as though I could use them for my own pleasure."

He said he likes teaching very much, and he enjoys working with students. Before he began here he taught at Baker.

Mr. Calderwood and his wife Ruby were married in 1928. They have a son and two grandchildren. His son is a professor at the University of California.

Mr. Calderwood was raised in Lake County of Eastern Oregon. He majored in zoology and minored in psychology and social studies. He went to college his first two years at Oregon State, and graduated from Southern Oregon College. He got a degree and graduated from the University of Nevada. He began his masters degree at the University of Washington, then fought in World War II for 3 years and finally finished his masters at Oregon.

He has traveled all over the U.S. and the South Pacific. He has spent several years aerial mapping from the Canadian border to Mexico and west of the Rockies.

He said he would like to visit Arizona for a few winter months or San Diego, California, but he has no plans yet. Mr. Calderwood said that traveling was not something he looks forward to doing but that he might also like to go camping and fishing in Alaska for a summer.

Best wishes to my favorite second senior Secretary who is always understanding and very nice to work with.

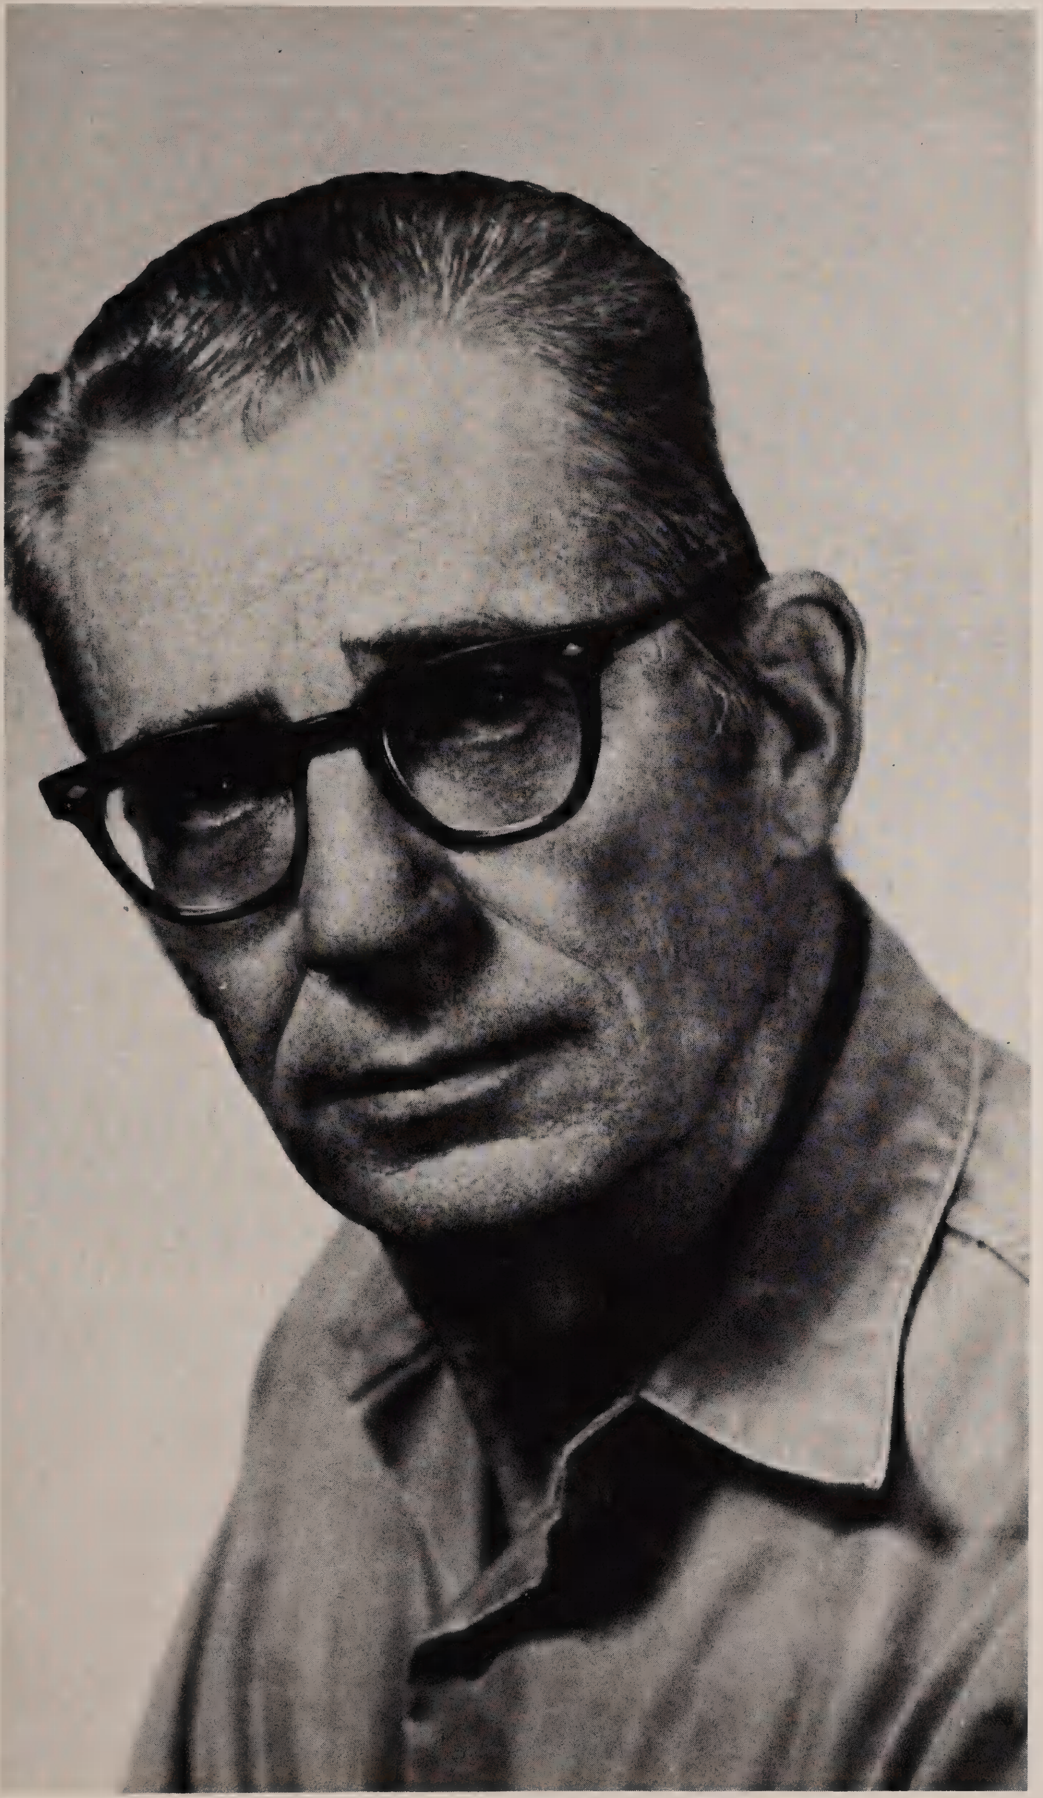
G. Calderwood
Sr. Citizen #1



Mr. Phil Lutrell

Retirement is a time to withdraw from one's active duty, occupation or position, and take it easy for a while. Slow things down.

This isn't the case, however, for our supposedly retired custodian, Mr. Phillip Lutrell.

Mr. Lutrell retired just before this school year started, August 30. He is reported to be working, more and harder than he did before his retirement. When inquiring, during an interview with Mrs. Lutrell, what Mr. Lutrell does with his spare time, she responded: "He hasn't been having any. He works for the Booster Club all the time. He's been down at the school more than when he worked." Mr. Lutrell also fills in part time for custodians that are sick.

Mr. Lutrell has always been active in something. He was born in Monazoome, North Carolina, June 15, 1910. He graduated from Newland High School in 1927. During his time at Newland, he was president of the Literary Club, played four years of basketball, four years of baseball, and lettered in both. He furthered his education two years, at Lee McGrey Institute. He continued playing basketball in college and majored in language with four years of Latin. Most of his time at Lee McGrey was spent in literary society. He taught two years of Latin in North Carolina. After teaching, Mr. Lutrell went into the military service. He was in the service from 1943 to 1945. During his time there he served in a Tank Destroyer Batallion, and as a radio technician. He was awarded a Certificate of merit for distinguished service, a Presidential unit citation merit, and a purple heart for wounds received in action. After being injured, he was hospitalized and returned to the States in June of 1945.

Twelve years later, he was employed by school district no. 19, and has been here since.

Mr. Lutrell has always been interested in Boosters Club, but participated only as a custodian up until his retirement. Now he's chairman and permanent member of the concession committee. Sounds busy? Mr. Lutrell says, "It just runs my legs off." What made him decide to join? "Well, I've suffered with these kids and won and lost with them for sixteen years so you get kind of close and I just thought it would be kind of fun." Does he enjoy Boosters? "Oh, I'm having a ball."

"I was stalking this deer and I saw this beautiful tree, and I sat down under this beautiful tree,
and I went to sleep."

Mike Streeter
Born in Trenton, Ontario, Canada, June 8, 1941.
Died October 1, 1973.

The rememberance of a life that has past...the beginning of a life-time.

We lost a lot by loosing Mike Streeter a short time ago, but from his life we should learn a lot about our own future.

Mike Streeter, a man of principles, a man of goals and most of all a man who strived to maintain his principles and attain his goals.

Live life with meaning. To exist without purpose is not living.

Your mental attitude and alertness is closely associated to your physical well-being. Concern yourself with others and others will be concerned with you. Have concern with your physical and mental self and others will take note and, perhaps, learn.

When you know someone so little and learn so much from him, he had to be a great man.

PISCHEL YEARBOOKS, INC.

Mrs. Jones,
I'm really glad I got to come in here 6th per. everyday. It really made my day. Thanks a lot for filling out my application, I'm sure that helped a lot. I'll be thinking of you while I'm working hard and having fun in the forest. Have a great summer and maybe I'll come back and ~~[illegible]~~ visit.

Love,
Mary Lou '74

Mrs. Jones,
I am glad that I workin the main office this year. It was fun doing things for you. I hope to see you next year. I hope you have fun this summer.

Love

Mrs Jones
It has been a great year working in the office. I'm going to really miss you. There couldn't be any one better to work for. I wish you the very best future that could ever be. I hope to see ya again. I'm sure I will miss ya alot I'm going to

Love
Bonnie Parker

Mrs. Jones,
You can't imagine how much I've enjoyed myself the past two years here in the office. I'm really going to miss S.H.S and especially you and the office. Thanks for making this part of my life complete. You can rest to sure I'll be back to see you next year.

Love

Mrs. Jones—
It was a really fun year in office. I really enjoyed it but only on the days you didn't work me to death. Hope I see you next year a lot. I'll come in and visit
See you later—
